

Guidelines for the inclusion of eBooks on the Australian Haiku Society's list of resources

Do you have a collection of haiku in digitised format that is available as a free download from a website that AHS can link to?

Are you the copyright owner of that work?

Are you resident in Australia or an Australian living abroad?

AHS welcomes people from all countries and nationalities as members but as our stated mission is to:

promote enjoyment of haiku writing within Australia,

bring Australian writers to the world haiku community,

this service is limited to Australian citizens and/or residents.

To apply to have your publication considered for inclusion in our list of free haiku resources please email us with the following information and a statement that you own the copyright of that work.

- Your name
- Address
- Contact email
- Best phone contact
- Are you 1) An Australian resident?
 - 2) An Australian citizen living abroad?
- Brief biographical statement (50 -100 words)
- Web site or blog address (if you have one)
- Title of Publication
- Description of publication (e.g. haiku, haibun, haiku history etc)
- Date of publication
- Publisher name and place of publication
- URL Link to your eBook

Links to haiku eBooks will be made at the discretion of the Australian Haiku Society.